

Newly-Weds Will Live in Moree

A young couple from Moree Aboriginal Station were married at St. Francis Xavier's Church, Moree, in January, with a reception afterwards at the Memorial Hall supper-room.

The bride was Colleen Dale Brennan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Brennan. She was married to Barry James Duke, son of Mrs. P. Duke and the late Mr. N. Duke.

The service was conducted by the Rev. Fr. B. Melville.

The bride wore a ballerina dress of lace over satin with short sleeves and a round neckline. Her shoulder-length veil was mounted on a diamante coronet.

Her attendants were Shirley Duke, the bridegroom's cousin, and her sister Daphne. Each wore a dress of lilac taffeta with a lace bodice and a satin cummerbund. For headdresses they wore bandeaux of flowers.

Bill Cutmore was best man and George Brennan groomsman.

Flowergirls were the bride's niece Rhonda Swan and the bridegroom's niece, Sue Johnson.

After the ceremony guests were entertained in the Memorial Hall supper-room.

The bride has been working at the District Hospital for the past 18 months. The bridegroom is a Post Office employee.

They will make their home in Moree.

Photograph: North-West Champion, Moree.