

---

Mr. L. K. Darcy (nearest camera), the part-Aboriginal representative on the Aborigines Welfare Board, sat on the banks of the Murray at Swan Hill and talked things over with one of his people, during the Board's visit to Murray River towns in October (see story page 8)

---

