Penalty: 15 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months.

Division 2—Offences Relating to Sentenced Persons

Offence to escape or attempt to escape, etc.

267. (1) A person who is lawfully detained in a remand centre, youth residential centre or youth training centre must not escape, attempt to escape or be absent without lawful authority from the remand centre, youth residential centre or youth training centre or from the custody of any member of the police force or other officer in whose custody the person may be.

Penalty:

- (a) In the case of a child who is under the age of 15 years, detention in a youth residential centre for 3 months;
- (b) In the case of a child who is of or above the age of 15 years, detention in a youth training centre for 6 months;
- (c) In any other case, imprisonment or detention in a youth training centre for 6 months.

(2) A person who is escaping or attempting to escape or who is unlawfully absent as described in sub-section (1) may be apprehended without warrant by any member of the police force.

(3) If it appears to a magistrate by evidence on oath or by affidavit that there is reasonable cause to suspect that a person so escaping or unlawfully absent is in any place, the magistrate may issue a search warrant.

(4) A child apprehended under this section may—

- (a) be placed in a remand centre, youth residential centre or youth training centre; or
- (b) be placed in prison or a police gaol if it is not possible to place the child in a remand centre, youth residential centre or youth training centre.

Offence to harbour or conceal person

268. A person must not, in the knowledge that a person—

- (a) has escaped or is absent without lawful authority from a remand centre, youth residential centre or youth training centre in which the person is lawfully detained; or
- (b) has escaped from the custody of a member of the police force or other officer in whose legal custody the person is or is deemed to be under section 239 (2), 242 (2), 243 (3) or 244 (3)— harbour or conceal or assist in harbouring or concealing the person or prevent or assist in preventing the person from returning to that centre or custody.

Penalty: 15 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months.

Offence to counsel or induce person to escape

269. A person must not directly or indirectly withdraw a person without legal authority from, or counsel or induce or assist a person to escape from, a remand centre, youth residential centre or youth training centre in which the person is lawfully detained.

Penalty: 15 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months.

Offences in relation to persons held in centres

270. (1) A person must not without lawful authority or excuse—

- (a) communicate or attempt to communicate with a person held in a remand centre, youth residential centre, youth training centre or youth supervision unit in contravention of a clear instruction from the Director-General not to do so; or
- (b) deliver, or in any manner attempt to deliver, to any such person or introduce or attempt to introduce or cause to be introduced into a remand centre, youth residential centre, youth training centre or youth supervision unit, any article or thing not allowed by the regulations; or
- (c) in any manner take or receive from any such person for the purpose of conveying out of or taking away from a remand centre, youth residential centre, youth training centre or youth supervision unit any article or thing without the consent of the Director-General; or
- (d) deliver or cause to be delivered to any other person any article or thing for the purpose of being introduced as mentioned in paragraph (b) or secrete or leave about or in any place where any such person is usually employed or detained any article or thing for the purpose of being found or received by any such person; or
- (e) at any time or in any manner contrary to the regulations convey to or cause to be conveyed to any person any article or thing; or
- (f) lurk or loiter about a remand centre, youth residential centre, youth training centre or youth supervision unit for any of the purposes mentioned in this sub-section.

Penalty: 15 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months.

(2) A person who has without lawful authority or excuse entered a remand centre, youth residential centre, youth training centre or youth supervision unit or any building, yard or ground belonging to that centre or unit must not refuse or fail to leave when required to do so by any person for the time being in charge of that centre or unit.

Penalty: 15 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months.

(3) A person guilty of an offence under this section may be apprehended by a member of the police force without warrant.

Division 3—Director-General: Miscellaneous

Powers of Director-General in relation to medical services and operations

271. (1) The Director-General may at any time order that a person—

- (a) in the care or custody of the Director-General as the result of—
 - (i) an interim accommodation order; or
 - (ii) a custody to Director-General order; or
 - (iii) a guardianship to Director-General order; or
- (b) in the legal custody of the Director-General as provided by section 253; or
- (c) in safe custody under section 69, 80 (1), 95 (3), 95 (4), 111 (3) or 111 (4)— be examined to determine his or her medical, physical, intellectual or mental condition.

(2) The Minister and the Minister administering Division 1 of Part II of the Health Act 1958 may make arrangements for the provision of any necessary medical, dental, psychiatric, psychological or pharmaceutical services to persons referred to in sub-section (1) or to any class or classes of those persons or to any other persons placed in a community service.

(3) On the advice of a legally qualified medical practitioner that medical treatment or a surgical or other operation or admission to hospital is necessary in the case of a child referred to in sub-section (1) (a) (ii) or (iii) or (b), the Minister, the Director-General or any person authorised by the Director-General in that behalf may consent to the medical treatment or the surgical or other operation or the admission to hospital even if the child's parent objects.

(4) The Minister, the Director-General or any person authorised by the Director-General in that behalf may consent to medical treatment or a surgical or other operation or admission to hospital in the case of a child who is not referred to in sub-section (1) (a) (ii) or (iii) or (b) if—

- (a) the child is placed in a community service as the result of—
 - (i) having been taken into safe custody under section 69, 80 (1), 95 (3), 95 (4), 111 (3) or 111 (4); or
 - (ii) an interim accommodation order; and
- (b) a legally qualified medical practitioner has advised that the medical treatment or operation or admission to hospital is necessary to avoid a serious threat to the health of the child; and
- (c) the child's parent—
 - (i) refuse to give his or her consent; or
 - (ii) cannot be found within a time which is reasonable in the circumstances.

Offence to obstruct Director-General or officer

272. A person must not obstruct or hinder the Director-General or any officer in the execution of his or her duties under this Act.

Penalty: 15 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months.

Division 4—Court: Miscellaneous

Witness who has previously appeared in Children's Court

273. (1) If a person is called as a witness in any legal proceeding within the meaning of section 3 of the Evidence Act 1958 (other than a proceeding in the Children's Court) and the person—

- (a) has appeared before the Court charged with an offence; or
- (b) has been the subject of an application to the Family Division for a protection order—no question regarding —

- (c) that charge or any order made in respect of that charge; or
- (d) that application or any appearance of the person before the Court in respect of, or consequent on, that application—is to be asked of the person after the end of 3 years from the date of the charge, application or appearance (whichever last happens).

(2) Sub-section (1) does not apply if—

- (a) the question is relevant to the facts in issue in the proceeding or to matters necessary to be known in order to determine whether or not those facts existed; or
- (b) the Court considers that the interests of justice require that the question be asked.

(3) A person referred to in sub-section (1) must not be asked any question about any application made to the Family Division other than an application for a protection order.

Defendant or other person who has previously appeared in Children's Court

274. (1) If—

- (a) a person has appeared before the Court charged with an offence; or
- (b) an application has been made to the Family Division for a protection order in respect of the person—the fact of the charge or of any order made in respect of the charge or of the application or of any appearance of the person before the Court in respect of, or consequent on, the application must not be given in evidence against the person in any legal proceeding within the meaning of section 3 of the Evidence Act 1958 (other than a proceeding in the Children's Court) after the end of 3 years from the date of the charge, application or appearance (whichever last happens).

(2) Sub-section (1) does not apply if that fact is relevant—

- (a) to the facts in issue in the proceeding; or
- (b) to matters necessary to be known in order to determine whether or not those facts existed.

(3) Despite sub-section (1), if a person is found guilty by a court of an offence, evidence may be given to the court of an order of the Criminal Division in relation to an offence committed by the person, if the order was made not more than 10 years before the hearing at which it is sought to be proved.

Transfer of proceedings from Magistrates' Court to Children's Court

275. (1) If before or during the hearing of a charge for an offence it appears to the Magistrates' Court that the defendant is a child, the Magistrates' Court must discontinue the proceeding and order that it be transferred to the Children's Court and in the meantime it may—

- (a) permit the defendant to go at large; or
- (b) grant the defendant bail conditioned for the appearance of the defendant before the Children's Court at the time and place at which the proceeding is to be heard; or
- (c) remand the defendant in a remand centre until the proceeding is heard by the Children's Court.

(2) In exercising a power conferred by sub-section (1) (b) or (c) the Magistrates' Court must exercise the power in accordance with this Act as if it were the Children's Court.

Supreme Court or County Court may exercise sentencing powers of Children's Court

276. The powers that the Supreme Court or the County Court may exercise in sentencing a child for an indictable offence include the power to deal with the child in any way in which he or she could have been dealt with by the Children's Court under this Act if it had heard and determined the charge for the offence.

Service of documents

277. (1) If by or under this Act a person is required to serve a document and no provision is made, other than in this section, as to how the document is to be served, the document must be served on the person to be served—

- (a) by delivering a true copy of the document to that person personally; or
- (b) by sending by registered post a true copy of the document addressed to that person at that person's last known place of residence or business; or
- (c) by leaving a true copy of the document for that person at that person's last or most usual place of residence or of business with a person who apparently resides or works there and who apparently is not less than 16 years of age.

(2) If it appears to the Court, by evidence on oath or by affidavit, that service cannot be promptly effected, the Court may make an order for substituted service.

(3) If the person to be served is a company or a recognized company or a recognized foreign company within the meaning of the Companies (Victoria) Code, the document may be served on that person in accordance with section 528, 529 or 530 of that Code.

Proof of service

278. (1) Service of a document may be proved by—

- (a) evidence on oath; or
- (b) affidavit; or
- (c) declaration.

(2) Evidence of service must identify the document served and state the time and manner in which service was effected.

(3) A document purporting to be an affidavit or declaration under sub-section (1) (b) or (1) (c) is admissible in evidence and, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, is proof of the statements in it.

Notice required to be filed if child is taken into safe custody or apprehended without warrant

279. If under the provisions of this Act (other than section 123 (3)) a child is taken into safe custody or apprehended without a warrant and that child is required to be brought before the Court, the person who took the child into safe custody or apprehended the child must file with the appropriate registrar as soon as possible after doing so and before the child is brought before the Court a notice setting out the grounds for taking the child into safe custody or apprehending the child.

Division 5—Regulations

Regulations

- (e) been in the care of the Department at any premises proclaimed to be a residential program under section 19 of the Intellectually Disabled Persons' Services Act 1986.”

Long-term child care agreements

‘13C. (1) In this section “service provider” has the same meaning as in section 13A.

(2) A parent or person who has custody of a child or young person under 18 years of age may, with the written approval of the Director-General, enter into a written agreement with a service provider with respect to the care of the child or young person.

(3) The Director-General must not approve the entering into of an agreement under sub-section (2) unless the Director-General is satisfied that—

- (a) the agreement is in the best interests of the child or young person; and
- (b) there are no alternative means available that would enable the parent or other person who has custody of the child or young person to resume the care of the child or young person; and
- (c) the wishes of the child or young person have, having regard to the age and understanding of the child or young person, been taken into account in making the agreement; and
- (d) the agreement provides for the parent or other person who has custody of the child or young person to have an on-going involvement with the child or young person in the terms specified in the agreement.

(4) An agreement under sub-section (2) may provide for a child to be in the care of—

- (a) a community service; or
- (b) a suitable person or persons other than —
 - (i) a parent or other person who has custody of the child or young person; or
 - (ii) the Director-General in his or her official capacity; or
 - (iii) a person employed by a community service in his or her official capacity.

- (5) To be a suitable person for the purposes of sub-section (4) (b) a person must be—
- (a) approved in writing by the Director-General or by a person authorised by the Director-General in that behalf as being a person suitable to have the long-term care of a child or young person; and
 - (b) a party to the agreement under sub-section (2).
- (6) An agreement under sub-section (2) must—
- (a) set out the objectives of the agreement; and
 - (b) set out the role of the service provider which must include—
 - (i) participating in any review of the agreement; and
 - (ii) assisting in the resolution of any disputes that may arise relating to the care of the child or young person; and
 - (iii) assisting, if required, in the provision of particular services specified in the agreement; and
 - (c) clarify the respective roles of the parent or other person who has custody of the child, the service provider and (where appropriate) the person or persons in whose care the child is under sub-section (4) (b).
- (7) An agreement under sub-section (2) must specify the period for which the agreement is to have effect which—
- (a) in the case of an agreement referred to in sub-section (4) (a), must not exceed 2 years; and
 - (b) in the case of an agreement referred to in sub-section (4) (b), may be for any period up to the day on which the child or young person attains the age of 18 years.
- (8) An agreement under sub-section (2) that is referred to in sub-section (4) (a)—
- (a) may be reviewed at any time during the period of the agreement at the request of one of the parties to the agreement; and
 - (b) must be reviewed before the end of the agreement; and
 - (c) may, with the written approval of the Director-General, be extended for a period not exceeding 2 years with or without any variation in its terms or another such agreement may be entered into.
- (9) An agreement under sub-section (2) that is referred to in sub-section (4) (b)—
- (a) may be reviewed at any time during the period of the agreement at the request of one of the parties to the agreement; and
 - (b) must be reviewed at least once in each period of 2 years.

(10) Any of the following may result from a review of an agreement under sub-section (9):

- (a) The agreement may be terminated;
- (b) The agreement may be extended for a period that does not extend beyond the day on which the child or young person attains the age of 18 years;
- (c) The terms of the agreement may be varied;
- (d) Another such agreement may be entered into.

(11) An agreement under sub-section (2) is not void or voidable by reason only that a party to it has not attained the age of 18 years.

(12) An agreement under sub-section (2) may be terminated by any party by giving notice in writing to the other party or parties.

(13) On the expiry or termination of an agreement under sub-section (2), the person having the care of the child or young person must, as soon as is practicable, cause the child or young person to be returned to the parent or other person who has the custody of the child or young person.

(14) The Minister may determine the rates to be paid in respect of children or young persons under an agreement under sub-section (2).'
