

The logo for the Indigenous Governance Awards 2014. It features a vertical column of five colored dots (red, yellow, grey, yellow, red) to the left of the text. The text is arranged in three lines: 'Indigenous', 'Governance', and 'Awards 2014'.

Indigenous Governance Awards 2014

- Supported by BHP Billiton and first run in 2005
- The goal of the awards is to identify, celebrate and promote effective Indigenous governance
- Strengths based approach to counter negative stereotypes about Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisations
- A record 113 applications in 2014

- Free online resource
- Based on the research from the Indigenous Community Governance Project
- Covers all the basics of governance plus more
- Shares examples of success from the Indigenous Governance Awards

www.reconciliation.org.au/governance

www.aigi.com.au

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Indigenous Governance Toolkit. At the top, there is a red navigation bar with the following links: About, Toolkit topics, Resources, Case studies, Governance watch, Contact, and social media icons for Twitter, Facebook, and RSS. The logo for 'Indigenous Governance Toolkit' is in the top left corner. Below the logo is a search bar labeled 'Search Toolkit'. A vertical sidebar on the left contains a list of menu items: Home, 01 Understanding governance, 02 Culture and governance, 03 Getting started, 04 Leadership, 05 Governing the organisation, 06 Rules and policies, 07 Management and staff, 08 Disputes and complaints, 09 Nation building and development, Glossary, Useful links, and Acknowledgements. The main content area features a large image of five people in a natural setting, with some carrying baskets on their heads. Below the image is a white banner with the text 'Welcome to the Indigenous Governance Toolkit'. Underneath this banner is a video player showing a man in a suit and hat, with a play button icon in the center. To the right of the video player is a text block that reads: 'The Indigenous Governance Toolkit is an online resource developed for Indigenous nations, communities, individuals and organisations searching for information to build their governance. It covers all the basics – your rules, values, culture, membership, leadership, and decision making – and has many examples of ideas that work from other groups, tools to help you get started, and useful guidance to sustain your efforts.' Below this text is a red button with the text 'Read more'. At the bottom of the page, there is a section titled 'How to use'.

The Toolkit

- Transfer
- Update: content and form
- Tailored workshops
- Interactive
- Current Toolkit to remain open access

AUSTRALIAN
Indigenous Governance
INSTITUTE

